View AIG's TMD for AppleCare+ with Theft and Loss here.

What is a TMD?

A TMD is a document created by AIG which seeks to offer customers, distributors and staff with an understanding of the class of customers for which the product has been designed and sets out:

- who is in the target market and who the product is not designed for;
- any distribution conditions and restrictions for the product;
- review periods and events that may trigger a review of the TMD; and
- reporting obligations for AIG's distributors.

The TMD is not intended and should not be treated as a full summary of the product's terms and conditions and is not intended to provide financial advice. Customers must refer to the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and any supplementary disclosure documents for the terms and conditions of the product when making a decision to acquire the product. TMD's for all AIG retail products are available on AIG's website at aig.com.au.

AIG is committed to offering high quality insurance products to meet our customer needs and which offer real value. AIG achieve this by taking a consumer-centric approach when designing and distributing our products.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to tell Us, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

If You are purchasing the AppleCare+ for iPhone with Theft and Loss:

This means that You must take reasonable care to answer accurately and completely all of the questions We ask You. If You are unsure about the requirements of any of Our questions, please tell Us. If You need to check

Your records or other information before answering, please make sure You do so. In answering Our questions, You should also make sure You provide accurate and complete answers for anyone else to whom the questions apply.

Your compliance with this duty is very important as We make Our decisions whether to insure You and, if so, on what terms based on the information You provide.

If You fail to take reasonable care and make a misrepresentation to Us, We may be entitled to:

- cancel Your insurance contract;

In response to any such questions, You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 and tell Us anything that You know of that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

Also, We may give You a copy of anything You have previously told Us and ask You to advise if it has changed. If We do this, You must tell Us about any change or tell Us that there is no change.

If You do not tell Us about a change to something You have previously told Us, You will be taken to have confirmed to Us that there is no change.

Please note that the Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation set out above and which may apply after 5 October 2021, will also apply to your monthly plan renewal.
